

STATE OF MICHIGAN

CERTIFICATE OF PROCLAMATION

ON BEHALF OF THE PEOPLE OF MICHIGAN,
I, Gretchen Whitmer, governor of Michigan, do hereby proclaim

September 25-29, 2023
as
CLEAN ENERGY WEEK

WHEREAS, across Michigan, clean and readily abundant forms of energy are powering more homes and businesses than ever before; and,

WHEREAS, clean energy is part of America's energy future and includes renewable sources, such as wind, solar, geothermal, as well as energy storage; and

WHEREAS, Michigan ranks among the top 15 states in wind-powered electricity generation; and,

WHEREAS, in 2021 Michigan communities updated their zoning ordinances to include renewable energy, solar zoning increased by 47%, and wind zoning increased by 8%; and,

WHEREAS, Michigan is home to Ludington, one of the largest pumped storage hydroelectric power plants in the world; and,

WHEREAS, the clean energy sector is a growing part of the economy and has been a key driver of economic growth in Michigan in recent years, with over 119,600 people employed in the clean energy and energy efficiency sector in 2022, and,

WHEREAS, clean energy jobs are inherently local and contribute to the growth of local economies, and these jobs cannot be outsourced due to the on-site nature of construction, installation, and maintenance; and,

WHEREAS, as our country celebrates National Clean Energy Week, individuals and organizations in Michigan are encouraged to support solutions that address America's economic and energy needs in the 21st century, and also encourage municipalities and individuals to implement the cleanest, lowest-emitting energy technologies available; and,

WHEREAS, we must harness the power of Michigan entrepreneurs and small businesses and ensure government collaboration to assert American energy leadership and dominance in the global marketplace and assure low-cost reliable energy here at home;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Gretchen Whitmer, governor of Michigan, do hereby proclaim September 25-29, 2023, as Clean Energy Week in Michigan.
