

Proclamation

WHEREAS, clean and readily abundant forms of energy are powering more homes and businesses than ever before and are a foundational part of America's future; and
WHEREAS, affordable and reliable clean energy is and will continue to fuel Arizona's robust economy; and
WHEREAS, continued advances in clean energy technologies are critical to our energy future; and
WHEREAS, Clean Energy Week encourages increased organizational and individual support of clean energy solutions to power our economy into the future; and
WHEREAS, the clean energy sector has created over 65,000 jobs in Arizona; and
WHEREAS, Arizona consumes more electricity than two-thirds of the states, but its total per capita electricity use is less than in three-fifths of the states; and
WHEREAS, the state's solar, wind, hydro, and geothermal resources are tremendous and it benefits industry and families to continue to invest in such cost-saving resources; and
WHEREAS, Arizona ranks among the top five states in the nation in total solar-powered generating capacity from both utility and small-scale installations, with nearly 9,000 megawatts.
NOW, THEREFORE, I, Katie Hobbs, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby proclaim September 15-19, 2025, as
