

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, Pennsylvania seeks to be a leader in protecting our environment by decreasing air pollution, supporting good-paying jobs through the clean energy sector, and reducing our reliance on non-renewable resources; and

WHEREAS, our Commonwealth has a remarkable clean energy sector that provides tens of thousands of careers in technology and energy efficiency across the state; and

WHEREAS, clean energy is critical to improving air quality in Pennsylvania, protecting the health of our communities, and reducing our negative climate impact; and

WHEREAS, our Commonwealth's clean energy sector includes work in renewable resources such as wind, solar, nuclear, and hydroelectric power, as well as jobs in energy conservation, efficiency, and storage; and

WHEREAS, Pennsylvania has taken many steps in recent years to promote energy conservation, sustainability, and the use of renewable energy; and

WHEREAS, a cleaner, more resilient, and diverse clean energy grid benefits our state by protecting public health and ensuring low-cost, reliable energy.

THEREFORE, I, Josh Shapiro, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby proclaim September 14-18, 2026, to be and encourage everyone to support clean energy technologies for the health of our communities and those outside our state.

GIVEN under my hand and the Seal of the Governor, at the City of Harrisburg, on this tenth day of September two thousand twenty-six, the year of the Commonwealth the two hundred fifty-first.

Governor Josh Shapiro
